COLDWATER, ROUTE I

Miss Catharine Rosenbeck, of Cold-water, spent Sunday visiting with her nother, Mrs. Anthony Rauh. Julius and Leo Borns were the guests of Chas. Loshe Sunday evening. I am going to tell you a true little tory of a farmer who depended upon borrowing a newspaper after his neigh-bor was through reading it and what it ost him to borrow three single copies. He sent his little boy to borrow the paper, and in his haste the boy ran bee-hive and in ten minutes looked like a watery summer squash. His cries reached his father, who ran to his assistance, and failing to see a barbed wire fence, ran into it, breaking it down and cutting a handful of flesh from his anatomy and ruining a pair of $5 trousers. The old cow took ad-vantage of the gap in the fence, got into the corn field and killed herself eating green corn. Hearing the racket his wife ran, upsetting a four-gallon churn of rich cream into a basket of kittens, drowning the whole flock. In ier hurry she dropped and broke a $7 set of false teeth. The baby, left alone, crawled through the spilled cream into the parlor and ruined a $25 carpet. During the excitement the oldest daughter ran away with the hired man, the calves got out and the dog broke loose and broke up ten setting hens. Subscribe for the newspaper you want
